On August 29, 2023, at approximately 4:20 a.m., U.S. Border Patrol (USBP) agents observed several subjects carrying large square objects, consistent with narcotic bundles, walking north towards the riverbank on the Mexican side of the border.

At approximately 7:00 a.m., USBP agents observed a green in color SUV driven by a male subject, later identified as Jorge Alexis Garcia-Garcia, hereinafter referred to as Garcia-Garcia, driving southbound towards the Rio Grande River at a high rate of speed. USBP agents then advised via service radio that several individuals were loading large brown bundles into the bed of the green SUV. In the past, this area has often been used to smuggle narcotics into the country, due to its proximity to the river and a major road. This information was relayed to agents working nearby, who then began to respond to the area.

USBP agents were traveling southbound and observed a green in color SUV heading south over the levee when Garcia-Garcia came to a stop and reversed to go back north. USBP agents in a marked unit, activated their emergency equipment, as they approached the green SUV. Garcia-Garcia then drove around the USBP unit and proceeded to go north on McManus Road at a high rate of speed. Once Garcia-Garcia observed other USBP units he began to evade units and until the green SUV became stuck in an open field.

USBP agents then approached the green SUV and apprehended Garcia-Garcia, who was seating in the driver seat. USBP agents also observed what appeared to be several large brown bundles in the bed and inside the SUV.

The bundles were secured by USBP agents and transported to the Weslaco Border Patrol Station for processing. The bundles yielded total gross weight of approximately 169 kilograms and the green leafy contents tested positive for marijuana.

At approximately 10:17 a.m., DEA agent arrived at the USBP station to interview Garcia-Garcia. Under Miranda advisement and waiver, Garcia-Garcia admitted knowledge to transporting a shipment of marijuana and would receive two thousand dollars upon delivery.
